

School Memories - Joan Guy nee Hunt - 1952-1956

Dear All,
re your school centenary in June 2012, I attended Shirley Junior Girls School from 1952 - 1956, when I passed the 11+ exam to St. Anne's Convent Grammar School in Southampton. We had no proper uniforms, as such, as can be seen from the enclosed photo but it seems we all had a summer blazer for the outing to the Isle of Wight!

The Head teacher was Miss G. Ferrant and two of my teachers were Winifred Downey and Mrs Rankine.
I enjoyed singing the hymns with Miss Ferrant at piano, some of which I still know off by heart today when singing in Romsey Abbey. I also enjoyed my friends and still know the names of 30 out of 34 in photo!
I loved the coloured dinner plates we had for our meal

The outing to the Isle of Wight stands out as a particularly happy time - see enclosed photos from 56 yrs ago, just prior to leaving the school for our senior schools. Just remembered, I loved doing mental arithmetic and spelling too.

Look forward to coming on the Wednesday evening and also to the Summer Fair on the Saturday.

Best wishes,

Joan Guy (nee Hunt)
