

Let's Pretend

This Half Term we are learning all about traditional tales & Rhymes.

To start your child's learning we would like you to read or watch the following stories or rhymes with your child. Each one will be used during our topic.

Once you have read or watched them all then please ask your child to complete a review of their favourite traditional tale/rhyme.

On the next page you will find some suggestions on what to include in their review. These can be copied out onto paper.
