'oa' words to read and look out for

Toads, road, loads, coat, coach.

Questions:

- Look at the front cover.
Talk about what you can see on the front cover in the picture. What is a toad? Why do you think there might be a toad on the road?
- Read page 1
Read page 1 together. Discuss that the book will have lots of 'oa' words. Can they predict what might Dad do to help the toad?
- Read through the book together
Discuss what is happening on each page and what happened previously. What do you think will happen next?
- Sequencing ideas-
  - 1- Cut up the pictures and put them in the correct sequence from the beginning of the story to the end.
  - 2- When the sequence is correct, can you retell the story in your own words?
  - 3- Use the pictures to add labels or speech bubbles to the scene. For example;

Dad

Oh no! There is a toad.
